Solid ft work behind the plate throwing to bases. Works okay in the infield.

OK transfer. Firm receiver

Reactions

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Beats ball to spot. Picks it up out of hand when moving to block

3 - Average

Comments

Just okay here. Likely still growing and could see improvements as he gets more comfortable

Strength

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Present strength

Physical Development

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Good body. Not a ton of projection but has plenty of room to add on muscle with his lean build and large frame.

BASEBALL SKILLS

Fielding

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Firm hands. Sticks it and shows he can handle the work load behind the plate. Would like to see more polish when he presents the pitches. Added flexibility will help improve receiving, allowing his body to get to a better position

Okay side to side. Will keep it in front if he gets to it. Flexibility will help here as well

Runs for size/position but not a burner

Has some carry to it and can make it to 2B with ease.

Throws were on or around the bag when throwing to bases

Hitting Ability

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Confident look with a mature approach. Stays over the ball and has a knack for finding barrel

Power Potential

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Has the body to back up future power projections. More comfort to his pull side but as swing develops and grows more consistent, could see more to all fields.

PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Physical R/R with a large frame, good shoulders, and lots of room to add strength top to bottom. Gave off a "bat first" vibe during the tournament. Showed a very mature approach for a young 14 yr old and his efforts paid off with tons of solid contact. Swing mechanics and timing consistency require some polish but should see improvements as he grows and develops. Don't see a definite future position here but was intriguing behind the plate. Showed strong hands receiving the ball and worked hard to keep it in front. Lower half was a bit on the stiff side but if as he improves his flexibility, he will be able to effectively receive more pitches in the strike zone. Will need to grow into his power while maintaining his athleticism but could see this kid playing at the next level if he continues to grow.
