PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Projectable, large framed, slender build with lots of room to fill. Can dream on the body and with an easy FB that shows solid velocity for his age. Effort is on the lower end and his arm works. Delivery requires some polishing, but he eventually gets his body into a decent delivery position once his plant foot lands. Attacked the strike zone early with his FB and his off speed should see improvement as he refines his craft and adds to his present arm strength, giving his 11-5 breaking ball some more bite. Showed promise on both sides of the field, however the look he gave on the mound gives you a lot to dream on. Could be a legit two-way player in HS and has a chance to take his game to the next level if he continues to refine and develop as he matures.
