Fundamental with his glove skills. Soft hands, clean transfer.

PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Interesting young player early in his potential and development. L/R profile. Versatile skill and tool set. Strength and agility are critical components. Shows nice baseball skills and actions. I saw him catch briefly on Saturday and it went well for him behind the plate. Will need to shorten up his swing to find consistency with the hit and power. Has the type of ability that could blossom within 12-24 months with continued improvement and focus on his developmental needs.
