PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Rangy SS with ability to play all three infield positions exceptionally well. Needs work on fundamental infield play, but natural instincts let him play loose and free, making some well above average plays for his age and size. Has strong arm, quick release, powerful with carry through his target. Will mature as a hitter, come into his own swing and power potential, but, until that time, skills with the glove will carry him and make him projectable at the next level as a High School and college SS.
