Comments

Potential for occasional, gap to gap in game power.

PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Large framed corner infielder, Brody shows good hands and strong arm consistently above average for his age. While not a first step, fast twitch type of athlete, he has powerful sustained speed that compliment his awareness and aggressive style running the bases. Needs work on foot speed and initial quickness to translate to better pre-pitch approach and reactions at third base. Quality infield instruction could potentially get him off his heels and ready to react and cover more ground effectively, this will be a must for his ability to keep growing developing as a player at the next level.
