PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

In the future will be Shortstop in college with offensive and defensive skills. Sound at the plate, no glaring flaws. Will be gap to gap hitter that can steal some bases. Needs playing time and at bats. Infielders need to play balls off the bat during batting practice to speed up development. Long TOSS helps develop arm strength. Throw with 4 seam grip, across the wide seams. Throw overhand with the elbow as high as the shoulder. Stretch the distance out with each throw a little longer. Throw easy until you start getting loose and then throw with about 3/4 effort (Not as hard as you can). Each throw should be a little longer.. Throw comfortably as long as you can throw in the air. When you get to the point you bounce the ball then get a little closer make 10-15 more throws in the air. Try to throw a little longer each day.
