Well built young man with plus strength top to bottom and room still for his man muscles.

Physical Development

5 - Above Average

Great body with strength and athleticism now. Still very young and highly likely not done developing physically.

Quick/compact arm action with clean extension both ends.

Arm Strength

5 - Above Average

Comments

Easily above average arm strength now.

Delivery

5 - Above Average

Comments

Athletic delivery with good balance throughout. Stays tall over back side well. Works north-south and gets out/over front side.

Control

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Lots of strikes with the FB, but more so to his arm side. Would like to see get that FB to glove side more and pound the hands of RHH's.

Fastball

5 - Above Average

Comments

Top of the chart velocity for his age. Was 80-84 in 1st inning, but up to 89 in 2nd inning with lots of 87's. Good downhill plane with solid lefty tail and occasional late sink below the belt.

Off Speed

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Threw 12-7 shape CB's and fading change ups between innings. Only mixed in a few off speed pitches in 2nd inning and not exactly sure what they were. 1 was at 77mph and looked like a short down/away SL and 2 at 77-78 might have been change ups. Either way the makings are there of at least above average off speed stuff.

PLAYER SUMMARY

Good looking young lefty with a strong athletic body and solid average to plus stuff now. Really like the repeatable/athletic delivery. The arm is quick and works very well. Downhill natural lefty tail to FB, does it easy, already up to 89 and there's for sure more in the tank. Limited use of CB/SL and Change up, but it's above average secondary. It was a quick look, but pounded the strike zone with the FB. Very exciting young lefty with tons of upside and lots of potential.
