PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Athletic young catcher with chance to play beyond high school. Work to be done here however. Body will develop naturally but arm needs attention. A consistent throwing program and offseason arm care will be important in his development. He will need to get with a competent catching person that can touch on the basic mechanics of catching and throwing as a catcher. Solid defender now but future is the focus. Bat looks to be a line drive gap to gap stroke. Needs to stay with the idea of making hard line drive contact. Pop will develop as he matures. Team leader that other players will look to.
