PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Athletic and strong, Connor has large frame and natural raw power in his bat and arm that gives him a high ceiling at the next competitive level. Physically advanced in his age group, and beyond, shows dominance on defense, whether behind plate or in the outfield. Baseball IQ and awareness stands out making him an reactive player, seemingly one step ahead in his decision making and execution. Will need to adapt hitting style, work on timing and rhythm as competition level increases, as well as more advanced work behind the plate, where he shows most potential, on blocking and defensive approach, not sacrificing framing for protecting and limiting runs/innings. Overall, impressive and imposing player, team leader and team mate with good overall make up.
