With mechanical and approach adjustments, power potential is above average. Needs work to get to this point.

PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Exciting SS to see at this age. High baseball IQ, can flat out play the game. Hustles everywhere, looking for the extra base, a back pick, any instinctual play to put his team at an advantage. Has potential to be solid high school SS, further down the road, his natural 2B actions will showcase his talents and abilities. Work needs to be done from an approach standpoint, shorten the path to the ball, more line drives, consistently putting ball in play. Natural tendencies to get good extension and hit ball in the air shows potential for power as he develops at the next level.
