ATHLETIC SKILLS

Feet

5 - Above Average

Comments

Nimble and quick. Efficient. Doesn't dazzle with actions but no wasted or false actions.

Hands

5 - Above Average

Comments

Good. Soft. Sure. Very clean with the baseball.

Reactions

5 - Above Average

Comments

Alert. Anticipates. Head in the game. Easy to see why he's at SS.

Body Control

5 - Above Average

Comments

General actions are real clean. Looks athletic, but not flashy.

Strength

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

He's at the end of his child development physically, but his natural strength is definitely above avg.

Physical Development

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Avg sized. Room to sprout and grow. Still relatively early in his physical development.

BASEBALL SKILLS

Fielding

5 - Above Average

Comments

Reliable, consistent defender with sure hands and nimble feet. He's relevant at SS in the future, however, size may make him more middle IF utility (SS/2B) than a pure SS.

Range

5 - Above Average

Comments

Advanced feel for positioning .Finishes plays (ability to make accurate throws on range plays)

Running

5 - Above Average

Comments

Motor scooter type. Not a burner, but shows first step quickness and athletic form.

Arm Strength

5 - Above Average

Comments

Solid. Enough for short. Not plus plus, but enough. Also pitches. Good for his throwing development right now.

Arm Accuracy

5 - Above Average

Comments

Good. Line carry with proper action.

Hitting Ability

5 - Above Average

Comments

Compact swing with a quick bat. Barrel direct to the ball. Mid field/gap to gap approach and does damage. Stays back. Not a body swinger. Stays back and uses hands to hit.

Power Potential

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

He's more of an extra base type than a true power guy, and I believe that's what he will be. That said, he does drive the ball and shows the strength and speed for slugging impact.

PLAYER SUMMARY

An above avg athlete with very good baseball skills and leadership intangibles. Could look like a different and better version of himself when he hits his growth spurt in a couple of years. Right now a tic undersized and under strength of elite talent at his age. But he could pass up a lot of players in his age group before it's all said and done because of his natural skills and advanced fundamentals.
