Strength

Well above average for age, uses size well and gets most of his body.

Physical Development

5 - Above Average

Comments

Tall, stocky, well put together, carries it well on large, power arm frame.

BASEBALL SKILLS

Arm Action

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Has smooth and quick arm action to throwing position, has tendency to get long, push the ball. Gets good extension out front and naturally turns ball over on the two seam FB, getting movement down in the zone. Falls off the glove side, to detriment of velo, good consistent release point compensates.

Throwing Effort

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Easy arm and actions, not a max effort guy. Can pitch with finesse.

Arm Strength

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Shows stamina and control over sheer velocity. Arm strength still above age group.

Delivery

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Shows good understanding of mechanics, consistent repeatable actions and good pace. Need work on being more efficient with arm action.

Control

5 - Above Average

Comments

Shows command with both pitches, effective in zone.

Fastball

5 - Above Average

Comments

Shows good movement and run on fastball down in zone. Natural two seam sink.

Off Speed

5 - Above Average

Comments

Spots breaking ball. Uses it well, pitches off 2 seam, uses it to get ahead and for out pitch.

PLAYER SUMMARY

Athletic and confident. Take charge player, but also, composed and focused pitcher. He is a natural starter, and sets tone of his outings. Will need to embrace and learn to pitch in relief situations as he progresses in his career. Mechanics and strength/stamina off season work could add to natural velocity. A true all around athlete who has high baseball IQ and potential to play at and beyond next level.
