PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Large frame outfielder, long and lanky with some growing and muscle development yet to do that pairs well with his current and projectable tools, falling well above his age group. Jordan covers ground well and is a good, solid outfielder showing natural defensive fundamental skills. Can range to the gaps, make on target, strong throws that carry through his target. Hits the cuts and knows when to let it go as well. At the plate, his short stroke and ability to find the ball with the barrel gives him excellent gap to gap approach and his long extension through the ball gives his ball carry and natural loft. Has power potential at the plate as his body and skills develop at the next level.
