Power Potential

4 - Slightly Above Average

Comments

Has extension and leverage; with future man strength and maturity, will be slightly above average

PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Athletic, graceful, and confident player; bat is best now tool; projection player; more natural potential and instincts than present knowledge of the game; with work we feel that this player can improve exponentially; needs proper fundamentals work on overall game, but mostly his throwing, defense, and base running; he is a natural hitter who is not overly concerned with power. This should not be altered; with proper work and development we see him as a Division I College CF, with a strong chance to play professionally.
