With size and body awareness, power, while raw, is useable and refined for his age. Power complements approach, high ceiling when he learns how to turn it loose.

PLAYER SUMMARY

Powerful presence on field among peers, physically and in his play. Will show power to the gaps, attacking in hitters counts and unphased by off speed. Raw fielder, but shows flashes of athleticism. First baseman body with good fielding actions and advanced baseball awareness. Will need to find and excel at one position after high school on the defensive side, but, his bat and potential for power will carry him through his career.
