PLAYER SUMMARY

Summary/Action

Solid strong young catching prospect that has chance to play beyond high school. Plus defender with strong skill set as a catcher. Plus catch and throw abilities. Strong concern here with his one knee catching. Obviously limits his ability to move consistently behind the plate. With the inconsistent abilities of the pitchers he is catching this one knee approach is even more of a problem. Needs to get back to basic fundamental catching stance. Offensively he is an impact type bat. Pull approach needs to be addressed as he needs to learn to use the whole field. Plus upside here and has the ability to be a top level catcher with work.
